

It is ridiculous to stifle XM radio in order to protect "local" broadcasters. Consumers should not be penalized for having chosen a better product. Traffic and weather information saves time and potentially saves lives. To use this information to foster protectionist policies is unfair.